

College Of Southern Nevada, Media Tech Newsletter

September 27, 2021

Hi Everyone,

We are in week 5, one third of the way through the semester. Can you believe it? How's it going? Do you need any help with anything? CSN's Centers For Academic Success is here for you. Need a tutor for a class? It's free, tutors will help you with classes or Canvas. Take advantage of this. Visit: <https://www.csn.edu/centers-academic-success> for more details about online and in-person services. You may also contact one of the offices: Charleston Centers 702-651-5732, North Las Vegas Learning Commons 702-651-4232, Henderson Learning Commons 702-651-3125.

Student ID's will be required for check out of equipment beginning Monday Oct 4th.

Students please visit any of the 3 main campuses and get a student ID.

The cost is still $2, payable at the cashier's office.

Go there first. Then take the receipt for the ID to the Student Government window, located in the Student Union. Student gov't. is in the student union of all 3 campuses. Cashier is in Main (E) building at NLV, D-Building at Charleston, and B-building at Henderson.

Student Government hours are 9-4 Mon-Thur.

Inspired:

While exploring one of my favorite weekly newsletters from Austin Kleon I was led to the artist, Mary Ruefle. (Look for a more blown-out exploration of Austin Kleon in an upcoming newsletter)

I have explored black-out poetry before, but the artistry in these works keeps me looking deeper. The tones of the paper and the creamy paint to block out the words, blends and holds my attention, allowing me to look at the nuances within each page.

The Getty's Five Most Popular Online Exhibitions Are Now Available in Spanish

The five collections newly available in Spanish are a Survey of Irises in fine art, including works by Vincent van Gogh and others, as well as a lesson in the mythic history of the flower; a collection of Getty works celebrating LGBTQ Pride; a focus on Medieval and Renaissance depictions of Balthazar, a Black African King; a recently acquired group of Japanese-American photos; and an examination of Edgar Degas' artistic methods through a close study of his pastel drawing of a ballerina.

Living in Vegas I am always seeking out shade - Our friend, local artist and activist Diane Bush might be inspired by this installation found in the town of Alhaurín de la Torre, in Malaga.

SOON:

Please join us for our 10th Annual CSN Short Film Showcase on Friday, October 8, 2021 at 6:30pm in the Nicholas J. Horn Theatre on the North Las Vegas campus of CSN. There will be a dozen films from our student filmmakers ranging from animation, comedies, documentaries, dramas, and music videos. Following the films prizes will be awarded for outstanding work in the various genres and a Q&A with filmmakers is an experience to witness the next wave of talent in this industry. The Showcase is free and open to the public. For the health and safety of everyone masks are required. Please view the attached flyer for further event information.

Every year Videography & Film works with the Graphics Program and has one of their classes compete among the students to show the annual Showcase poster. This winning mystery noir poster was created by Freddy Calva and captures the spirit of the times.

In addition, students from the College of Southern Nevada's Videography & Film Program received six Student Production Emmy Award nominations and won a Student Production Emmy for "Allure To Darkness" by Director Lourdes Viray. Adjunct Faculty member Kelly Schwarze also won an Emmy for his Public Service Announcement (PSA) "Don't Rush To Flush." In the past seven years the Videography & Film Program is honored to have earned 94 nominations and 45 wins with the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences Pacific Southwest Chapter (NATAS PSW).

October 9 – 10, 2021

Returning to the Lawn at Downtown Summerlin: Now in its 26th year, the Summerlin Festival of Arts is a popular outdoor festival in Downtown Summerlin, the community's open-air fashion, dining and entertainment center. Attracting more than 50,000 festival-goers throughout this two-day weekend event, the Summerlin Festival of Arts includes approximately 100 celebrated fine artists thoughtfully selected by a panel of art experts. The Festival includes children's activities, food and entertainment to create a full-bodied experience that has made it one of the most beloved annual events in Southern Nevada.
